An exchange asks "are we at war?" with China. No, we are only trying to find out how much fight there is in the Chinaman.

It is thought that the next Republican State convention of Wisconsin will adopt a resolution favoring the nomination of State officers by a direct vote of the people. Republican conventions are becoming very unreliable.

The Chinese Government is a compassionate sort of an institution. In Canton there is a place called the "dying place," where the poor, when they want to shuffle off this mortal coil, are permitted to go in and die.

There is a man laid up in a Wilmington, Delaware, hospital with lockjaw from eating toadstools, which he mistook for mushrooms. The trouble with the toadstool is that it don't lock up the jaws of people before eating.

It is considered worthy of publishing that a child was born in Washington a few days ago without a spine. Nothing very remarkable in that. There is a very distinguished resident of Washington, who has resided there nearly four years, who is minus in this respect. Mr. Bryan referred to that kind of people in his Indianapolis speech as "invertebrates."

Prince Sheng, the director of railways and telegraphs in China, is very rich. He ran a big gambling house in Tien Tsin, and people who wanted jobs or contracts had to show up as patrons of his gambling shop, and leave liberal sums of money behind them. Li Hung Chang made a good deal of his money the same way, but dispensed with the gambling house attachment.

A Pennsylvania woman, who returned to her home last week after a sojourn of several years in California was surprised to learn that she had been adjudicated legally dead and her property turned over to her heirs. She is now trying to find out if there isn't some way to legally resurrect her. She might consult Matthew S. Quay. He has been pronounced politically dead several times but is yet alive and kicking.

LOCAL DOTS.

— The brig M. C. Haskell arrived up from quarantine yesterday.

— The three-story freight office building on Nutt street for the A. C. L., is rapidly nearing completion.

— Capt. Hale is now master of the Clyde steamship Saginaw, in place of Capt. Johnson, who has been transferred.

— A number of sections adjacent to Wilmington reported showers of rain on Monday night. They came in good time as vegetation was well nigh parched to death.

— The prayer meeting service to-night at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will be conducted by Mr. S. Waters McGill, of Nashville, Tenn.

— One of the Atlantic Coast Line's heavy pile-drivers was yesterday placed on the site of its proposed new office buildings on Front street and work on the foundations will begin at once.

— There will be a dance at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville beach, to night. Music will be furnished by Prof. Miller's orchestra and there will be a late train for those desiring to return to the city.

— None of the Cape Fear river boats came down yesterday. Mr. T. D. Love left yesterday to join the Johnson and Driver and arrange to get them here if possible through the extremely low water.

— The little son of Mr. Isaiah West, who was burned by a live wire in a storm about two weeks ago, shows little sign of improvement. He is yet unable to stand in consequence of the wounds about his legs.

— The STAR regrets to note that the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. D. Smith, of Charlotte, continue quite ill. The little boy is somewhat improved, but Alice Reston, their little daughter, is not so well.

— Chairman C. P. Parker, of the Board of County Commissioners of Bladen, advertises in to day's STAR for bids for furnishing material and repairing or rebuilding Beattie's bridge, between Bladen and Pender counties. See advertisement for particulars.

— Mr. W. F. Bowen, of Willard, asks the STAR to correct an inadvertency in yesterday's paper, which made it say the big ratification picnic would take place next Saturday. Friday, August 24th, is the date, and the good people of Willard will on this occasion prove that they know how to entertain white men and vote on election day as well.

Congressional Convention.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday published a list of the delegates from Mecklenburg to the Congressional Convention to be held here Saturday. The delegates are requested to cast their unanimous vote for Congressman for Hon. John D. Bellamy.

Dr. E. Porter, who was here yesterday, said that Pender would send down a full delegation, which would also contribute with enthusiasm to Mr. Bellamy's unanimous selection.

The vote of each county in the convention will be about as follows except where Democratic majorities for Governor were greatly increased in the election held this month: Anson, 34; Brunswick, 16; Columbus, 28, Mecklenburg, 89; New Hanover, 44; Pender, 22; Richmond, 37; Robeson, 44; Union, 36. Total 350,

Produce Exchange Meeting.

Aside from the action of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange, published in yesterday's STAR, it was decided to rescind the rule by the Board and Exchange made at meetings held April 18th and 25th, 1899, and hereafter members will have the discretion of inviting their friends to the floors of the Exchange, whether they be residents of the city or from other points. Mr. J. P. Somers, the new manager of the Armour Packing Company's office in this city, was elected as a member of the committees on manufactures and railroad transportation, vice Mr. L. P. McKenzie, the former manager for Armour, who has been transferred.

Mr. A. L. Mayfield, the new manager here for Swift & Co., was also named on the committee on manufactures, vice his predecessor as manager here for Swift.

White Patent Axle and Hub Co.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the White Patent Axle and Hub Co. was not held yesterday for the lack of a quorum, Messrs. J. P. Council and F. P. White being absent. The next meeting of the directors will be held on the second Tuesday in September at which time the annual meeting of stockholders will be held for the election of officers and the transaction of other business in connection with the beginning of a new year of business.

Contract for Barracks.

Contractor Thad F. Tyler has been awarded a $12,000 contract for the building of the new barracks at Fort Caswell, same to be finished by Jan. 1st. He has already begun the ordering of material for the work. The building will be two stories high; 105 feet long and 26 feet wide; covered with slate. There will be two wings each 40 feet long and 26 feet wide.

ODD FELLOWSHIP.

Will Be a Week of Greeting and Entertaining Strangers in Wilmington.

THE ORPHANS HAVE ARRIVED

They Gave Creditable Entertainment at Southport Last Night—Many Representatives for the Grand Encampment Are Also Here.

The Grand Encampment, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of the State of North Carolina, will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in annual session in the hall of the local lodges on Third street opposite the City Hall. There will be a two days' session and an adjournment will probably not be reached until Friday morning. Principally routine matters will be considered at this afternoon's session and to-night there will likely be no session in order that the local and visiting members of the order may attend the entertainment by the children of the Orphanage, which will be given in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

A number of the officers of and representatives to the Grand Encampment arrived yesterday and last evening but the largest number is expected on to day's trains. Grand Patriarch Louis C. Howlett, of Greensboro, who will preside at the encampment arrived last evening as also did Grand Inside Sentinel L. W. Jeaneret, of Asheville, and Representatives R. W. Murray, of Greensboro; T. L. MacLean, of Greensboro; J. O. Sawyer, of Asheville; R. L. Burkhead, of Raleigh; B. C. Gorham and W. D. Gaster, of Fayetteville. Grand Junior Warden R. H. Ramsay, of Catawba River Encampment, No. 21, of Charlotte, arrived on yesterday's S. A. L. train. He is accompanied by his wife and will spend a while at Wrightsville. A number of the other visitors also went down the beach upon their arrival yesterday but will return in time for the session this afternoon.

Grand Patriarch—Louis C. Howlett, of Greensboro.
Grand High Priest—George Green, of Newbern.
Grand Senior Warden—W. E. Faison, of Raleigh.
Grand Junior Warden—R. H. Ramsay, of Charlotte.
Grand Secretary—B. J. Jacobs, of Wilmington.
Grand Treasurer—Thomas W. Blake, of Raleigh.
Grand Representative—Wesley Williams, of Elizabeth City.
Grand Marshal—L. L. Boon, of Wilmington.
Grand Inside Sentinel—L. W. Jeanneret, of Asheville.
Grand Outside Sentinel—D. W. Woodhouse, of Poplar Branch.

The visiting brethren are being received by the committee of entertainment, consisting of Messrs. M. W. Jacobi (chairman), R. J. Jones, B. J. Jacobs, L. L. Boon, W. F. Baldwin and Joe T. King. Their entertainment will be in common with that of the children of the Home.

Visit of the Orphans.

The forty children of the Odd Fellow's orphanage at Goldsboro arrived yesterday morning on the A. C. L. train and were taken immediately to Southport where they are now being entertained by Atlantic Lodge No. 43, of that town. They were cordially received by the local entertainment committee of this city and Capt. O. D. Burriss and Mr. M. C. Guthrie of the Southport committee, who accompanied them down the river on the boat. There was also a committee of young ladies to welcome the children as follows: Misses Tessie Evans, Ida Hart, Nannie McDonald, Janie Dudley and Ruth Keen. Miss Evans is at present an inmate of the home and Misses McDonald and Hart were at one time inmates. Each of the bright faced and happy boys and girls were presented with a badge of identification by the young ladies and they hastened aboard Capt. Harper's handsome boat and were soon on their way to Southport, where they last night rendered the following programme of song and recitation at the entertainment given for the benefit of the public:

"Fairy Bells Ringing."
"When Papa Leaves Home."
"You Will Get All That's Coming."
"Larboard Watch."
"Little Boy Blue."
"Under the Old Umbrella."
"Ave Marie."
"My Josephine."
"Summer Time in Dixie."
"God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again."

The children will return to the city on the afternoon boat and will repeat the programme to-night, as stated.

Accompanying the children were their superintendent, Mr. D. A. Coble, Mrs. Coble and Mrs. Barber, the matron; also Mr. W. A. J. Peacock, one of the trustees, and his daughter, Miss Maud Peacock.

On Their Way to Wilmington.

Dr. George C. Worth and family, who arrived Saturday at San Francisco from Japan, on the steamship Gaelic, are on their way to Wilmington and will arrive here Monday next. A host of friends in Wilmington will be pleased to welcome them home after the stormy scenes in China through which they have passed.

Game This Afternoon.

There will be a game of base ball at Hilton Park this afternoon at 4 o'clock between two juvenile teams—the "Chesnut Streeters" of Wilmington, and a team composed of boys from the Odd Fellows Orphan Home at Goldsboro. The battery for the "Chesnut Streeters" will be Orrell and Wessell.

STANDING MASTER'S COURT.

Hearing in Railway Tax Assessment Cases Begun Yesterday in Charlotte—Witnesses for Examination.

Hearing in the railway tax assessment cases before ex Judge James E. Shepherd, the standing master, was begun yesterday at noon in the Federal Court room in Charlotte. Hon. Franklin McNeill, chairman of the Corporation Commission, was not present at the opening of the hearing but left yesterday afternoon via the Seaboard Air Line to be in attendance upon the court this morning.

The hearing at Charlotte will probably consume the entire week, as more than forty witnesses have been summoned from Richmond county alone. These are principally persons interested in the various cotton factories around Rockingham and by them it is proposed to prove that stock in these various enterprises is assessed by the Commission at a much lower rate than the assessment placed upon railroad property.

Later, the hearing will shift to other parts of the State to suit the convenience of witnesses and attorneys, the whole time alloted the railroads being 90 days as ordered by Judge Simonton in this city several months ago.

The following was received last night from the Associated Press with reference to the hearing:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., August 14.—Leading business men and officers of Mecklenburg, Stanly, Cabarrus, Rowan and Davidson counties, examined before Standing Master Shepherd at a hearing of the tax cases against the railroads, testified to the uniform general rule and custom in the counties above named, saying that in each and every county the real and personal property of the citizens were assessed at from 50 to 75 per cent. of its true value in money.

Colonel J. R. Erwin, Hon. J. S. Henderson, Hon. D. R. Julian, Sheriff Monroe, of Rowan; Sheriff Neal, of Cabarrus; Mr. Finch, of Lexington, for ten years register of deeds for Davidson; J. W. Bastian and S. H. Melton, of Stanly, were examined today. The hearing will continue for the rest of the week.

Received Police Regulations.

Copies of the new police regulations or the government of the force as framed by the police committee of the Board of Aldermen and adopted by that body upon recommendation of the committee, were yesterday furnished members of the department and they will be expected within a reasonable time to thoroughly familiarize themselves with every detail of the requirements. Extended reference to the subject matter of these regulations was made in the STAR at the time of the adoption of the ordinances and a repetition of them is unnecessary here.

The rules are bound in a handsome morocco volume for the pocket and a copy will be presented to each member of the force.

Negro Accidentally Shot.

Amos Smith, a young negro living on Mr. Elijah Orrell's farm on the sound, was accidentally shot in the side last night by another negro named John Fair. The wounded negro was brought up to the city in a cart this morning about 2 o'clock by Fair and a witness of the shooting, Jim Robeson. The shooting was with a pistol, which was being carelessly handled by Fair. Smith is said to have a dangerous wound and was sent immediately to the City Hospital.

Democratic Picnic.

The STAR acknowledges with pleasure the receipt of an invitation from its friend, Mr. W. F. Leonard, of Kelly, N. C., to attend a big basket picnic and barbecue at Centerville, Bladen county on August 29th. "The object of the jubilee," writes Mr. Leonard, "is to celebrate our great victory for White Supremacy. A first class band will furnish music for the occasion and all lovers of good government are desired to be with us."

Request to Veterans.

Capt. James I. Metts, commander of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, requests that all members of the camp who will attend the monument unveiling in Raleigh next week, hand their names at once to Sergeant Major R. F. Hamme. Capt. Metts says the committee is practically at sea as to railroad rates until the exact number of those who will attend can be ascertained.

Atlantic Club Hop.

The Atlantic Yacht Club is arranging for a delightful hop to be given at the club house on next Friday night from 8 to 11 o'clock. This will probably be the last event of its kind for the season and those in charge are striving to make of it a great success. Prof Miller's band has been engaged and there will be a late train for the accommodation of residents of the city.

Merchants' Association.

The regular August meeting of the Board of Directors of the Merchants' Association will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in its office in the Seaboard Air Line building. A full attendance is requested, as matters of vital importance are to be discussed and acted upon.

SAMPSON POPULISTS

Have Called "Monster Indignation Meeting" to Be Held at Clinton.

SATURDAY IS THE DATE.

Marion Butler and Other Distinguished Speakers Are the Advertised Attractions—Circulars Being Posted in Populist Sections.

The good people of Sampson county doubtless thought that when he left for Raleigh Sunday and gave it out that early in the coming week he would go to Washington to direct the presidential campaign from there as chairman of the Populist National Committee, that they would have the pleasure of the soothing consciousness that Butler was no longer in their midst for a good long while at least. But it appears from circulars secretly being distributed in the Populist districts of his county that he will return from Raleigh and again visit Sampson and upon that occasion will speak at a "monster indignation meeting to assemble in Clinton, N. C., on Saturday, August 18th, 1900."

A friend of the STAR, driving through one of the rural sections of Butler's native heath, yesterday "stumbled on" one of these circulars which, contrary to the "eternal fitness of things," is printed on flaming red paper. This missive, which concludes with the injunction, "Everybody Come," is double headed with three inch letters proclaiming "Indignation Meeting" and here is what follows:

"The liberty loving people of Sampson county have called a monster indignation meeting to assemble in Clinton, N. C., on Saturday, August 18th, 1900. All lovers of liberty and opposers of red shirtism, mob and force rule, and those who favor honesty in elections are invited to attend. Hon. Marion Butler and other prominent speakers will address the meeting. Everybody come."

Fortunately or unfortunately the aforesaid "liberty-loving people of Sampson County" do not sign the "call to arms," but to the end of the circular is appended the name of W. F. Sessoms, who purports to be the "Chairman of the People's Party Executive Committee of Sampson county."

In a private letter to the editor of the STAR the sender of the circular says:

"Enclosed find circular which explains itself. I ran across it to day while on a buggy drive through the country in lower Sampson. I find they are being extensively posted around the 'Pop' sections and only to-day did the posting begin, which gives really only four days' notice. I doubt if anything of this is yet known among the Democrats of Clinton or elsewhere, save in immediate 'Pop' circles. It is doubtless a preliminary move by Butler to initiate his plea and canvass for McKinley."

[For the Star.]

AN OUTING IN THE COUNTRY.

Mr. P. H. Smith, formerly of Wilmington, now of Richmond, Va., who has been visiting his old friend, D. J. Corbett, Sr., of the bloody 18th Regiment of North Carolina, a prominent farmer in the Canetuck section, speaks thus of his trip:

Plenty of melons, peaches, some apples, no mosquitoes, congenial companions—among whom some lady friends of Mrs. Corbett's, one from Durham, N. C., one a student from Baptist Female University, also one from near Whiteville, N. C., and a prominent mill man from Fitzgerald, Ga., a relative of the Corbetts, spending their time as suited to themselves, thermometer not over 90 to 96 save August 9th, when it reached 99. Examined Mr. Corbett's 200 acres of cotton, corn, peas and potatoes; also the Lyon farms owned by the Corbett brothers and Mr. B. F. Keith. Drank water from the salt marsh canal, where salt was made during the war between the States, now owned by Mr. Hayward Corbett, of Ivanhoe, N. C. He also visited Mr. A. B. Corbett, at whose home he did mason work and served as groomsman at his marriage. Also the Dew homestead, where he also did mason work when quite a young man, and afterwards married Miss Hattie Benson in 1863. But, sad to say, many whom he knew then have long since "crossed over the river and are now resting under the shade of the trees."

A word as to the colored people, about whom there has been so much talk recently. He found them well clothed, industrious, satisfied and apparently making money, as it appeared to him, as they gathered up at Mr. Corbett's commissary after bell ring of an evening getting their pay, several of whom took their wages in cash, Mr. Corbett being very careful to have change for each one, and he was working during my stay from ten to twenty-five every day. I never saw him go out to get or complain of labor.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

FAISON, N. C., August 14th.—An attempt to rob the store of B. B. Witherington, Esq., was made this morning at 1 o'clock but the parties were frightened off by the approach of our night watchman who had been on duty since the attempt to burn the town on election eve night, August 1st. Detective "Hurricane" Branch, of Suffolk, was wired for at once and at this writing his blood hounds are trailing the tracks of the two men who were seen running from the store by the watchman.

Unable to force an opening through a back window, the robbers attempted to cut through a back door with an axe which in their hurry to escape was left in the door. The tracks and weather are fine and we hope to catch the thieves, who were either black or blacked their faces for the occasion. Every effort will be made to catch them.

CROPS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Conditions Decidedly Unfavorable for Agricultural Interests—Severe Drought and Heat.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

With an experience of over ten years the author of the Crop Bulletin of the North Carolina section does not remember conditions more unfortunate for agricultural interests than those prevailing throughout North Carolina since August 1, 1900. The weather during the week ending Monday, August 13th, was characterized by severe drought and intense heat. The maximum temperatures ranged from 90 degrees near the east coast and in the mountain regions to over 100 degrees in the central section and Piedmont plateau, while the daily means have averaged nearly 8 degrees above normal. The sunshine has been almost uninterrupted, and there was practically an entire absence of precipitation during the week, the light showers reported Aug. 15th being quite insignificant. The effect of the prolonged and severe drought has been very unfortunate; crops generally have deteriorated rapidly and all vegetation has been parched by the withering heat. The leaves of young deciduous trees have turned yellow, and the foliage of the forests looks dull and sickly from the accumulated dust. Crops have suffered more because the previous drought in July lessened their vitality and drought-resisting power. Farm work has been suspended; stubble land is too hard to plow; the second crop of Irish potatoes cannot be planted nor turnip seed sown, since the absence of moisture prevents all growth.

Even cotton is unable to withstand the drought much longer. Late cotton that was plowed early in August is still doing fairly well and is heavily fruited, but older cotton is failing rapidly; leaves are turning yellow, forms are shedding and bolls drying up or opening prematurely. Old corn has been practically ruined, many fields are completely dried from the tassel to the ground, and a small yield only can be obtained from early matured ears. Young corn will also be a failure without rain very soon; much of it will not silk as growth has ceased; only crops on low or rich lands with abundant humus to retain moisture are still good. Tobacco is drying up near the bottom and ripening too rapidly; curing is progressing with only fair results; as a small crop was planted the yield will be short. Minor crops, especially peanuts, rice and sweet potatoes have deteriorated considerably. Pea vines and pastures have dried up. Fruit and melons are abundant and a fine crop of grapes is expected. Shallow wells and streams have become dry and stock is suffering in some places.

THAT BUNCO ANTI-TRUST PLANK

Whether Imperialism be regarded as the paramount issue in the coming campaign or not there are other issues in which the American people are vitally interested, one of which is the trust issue. The Republican convention at Philadelphia tried to anticipate and forestall this issue by declaring in its platform that the Republican party is opposed to trusts, but so phrased its declaration that any trust in the country could successfully plead impunity from its operation by contending that it did not come under the head of the trusts spoken of in that declaration, for there is no trust in the country which would admit that it was formed for the purpose of putting up prices and monopolizing trade. They are all, according to their own professions, organized for the purpose of cheapening production, and thus, presumably, cheapening their products to consumers. That is what they pretend, and that is the principal, and about the only argument in defence of the trusts.

Parties should be judged by their actions, when they have the opportunity to act, rather than by their professions, especially when their professions are wrung from them by popular clamor. Judged by this standard where stands the Republican party as represented by President McKinley and a majority in both houses of Congress?

Congress was in session for something over six months. Among the first bills offered in the House of Representatives was one by Hon. John D. Bellamy, of this district, providing for the repeal of the tariff on foreign made paper, on wood pulp and other paper-making material. The paper trust had more than doubled the price of paper, and on some kinds increased the price three-fold. The newspaper publishers and book publishers throughout the country, regardless of political leanings, protested against this ruthless and ruinous robbery, and sent petition after petition to Congress asking for a reduction of the tariff duties on paper and paper-making making material, to break the monopoly which the trust had by permitting competition. A national association of publishers, representing all parties, drafted resolutions protesting against this merciless plundering and appointed a committee to go to Washington and lay the case before that body in person. They went, but they might as well not have gone. Other bills with the same object were introduced by several members after Mr. Bellamy's bill had been introduced and they all went into the forget box of the committee to which they referred for the purpose of strangulation.

There was not a movement made in either house of Congress to seriously consider giving the country relief from the trusts, although Mr. McKinley in his message indulged in some remarks on that line and suggested that Congress take some action to curb the trusts, but Congress would have had some difficulty in determining what was a trust in the estimation of Mr. McKinley. After Mr. McKinley's recommendation, after the vigorous spirit demands of the press of the country regardless of party or of section, and of the strongly worded resolutions passed by associations of publishers, the trusts were forgotten as if there were no such things in existence, and were never thought of again until that convention met at Philadelphia, when to humbug the people an unmeaning anti-trust plank was inserted in the platform. We see many Republican papers, we have read a number of speeches by leading Republicans since that convention met, but if we have ever seen one sentence condemning trusts or proposing to proceed against them it has escaped our recollection.

In his speech accepting the nomination for the Presidency, a speech of something more than ten thousand words, Mr. McKinley devoted about seven thousand words to discussing the money question and not one word to trusts. He seemed to have entirely forgotten them although they figure in the platform on which he stands, and although he felt that to be an issue of sufficient importance to receive attention in his message to Congress.

What arrant hypocrisy in the leaders of the Republican party to pretend to be opposed to trusts, and to favor curbing them, when they have so utterly failed to make any movement in that direction when they had the power, when they had a majority in both houses of Congress, when their President recommended it, and when the recommendation and the bills that were introduced received the hearty endorsement of many of the most influential organs of the Republican party. The anti-trust plank in the Philadelphia platform is simply another attempt to bunco the people who demanded protection from the trusts.

But it is absurd to expect a party whose legislation fosters trusts to destroy the offspring of that legislation. The Republican party takes care of the trusts and the trusts see that the Republican party is supplied with the needful cash to run campaigns and manipulate elections. They and Hanna understand each other.

A DISQUISITION ON A DISQUISITION.

The New York Sun devotes a good deal of attention these days to the utterances of Wm. J. Bryan, although it inconsistently sneers at them as if they are of very little importance and scarcely worthy of notice. It characterizes as "infantile" one of the contentions in Mr. Bryan's Indianapolis speech, which it disposes of as follows:

There is an infantile air about this disquisition of Mr. Bryan's on the title of the United States to the Philippines and the Filipinos:

"What is our title to the Philippine Islands? Do we hold them by treaty or by conquest? Did we buy them or did we take them? Did we purchase the people? If not, how did we secure title to them? Were they thrown in with the land? Will the Republicans say that inanimate earth has value when that earth is moulded by the Divine hand and stamped with the likeness of the Creator, and that it becomes a fixture and passes with the soil? If Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, it is impossible to secure title to people, either by force or by purchase. We could extinguish Spain's title by treaty, but if we hold title we must hold it by some method consistent with our ideas of government. When we made allies of the Filipinos and armed them to fight against Spain, we disputed Spain's title. If we buy Spain's title we are not innocent purchasers. But even if we had not disputed Spain's title, she could transfer no greater title than she had, and her title was based on force alone. We cannot defend such a title, but as Spain gave us a quit-claim deed, we can honorably turn the property over to the party in possession.

"As a supporter of the treaty of peace Mr. Bryan knows perfectly well what the American title to the Philippines is and his questions are purely rhetorical. As to the people, they were 'thrown in with the land,' just as the inhabitants of the Louisiana Purchase and Alaska were. The consent of the governed was never had or asked in any of the three cases of buying human beings, as Mr. Bryan would call it. Back of all title by purchase rests the original title by force. If Mr. Bryan's conscience pains him about the American title to the Philippines, it ought to pain him about the American title to the Louisiana Purchase and Alaska.

"Passing over Mr. Bryan's remarks about 'allies' and his singular notion of the effect of military repression of an insurgent movement upon the government against which the insurrection exists, there remains Mr. Bryan's proposition that 'we can honorably turn the property over to the party in possession.' The United States are the party in possession, and they will not give up possession any more than they would give up possession of the Louisiana purchase or of Alaska."

This is is what might be called a disquisition on a disquisition. It begs the question, takes the very points disputed for granted and is no answer at all to Mr. Bryan's "infantile" objections to the soundness of our title to the Philippines. "Back of all title by purchase," says the Sun, "rests the original title by force." President Day, of the Peace Commission, explicitly declared in an interview a year or so ago that our commissioners claimed no title by force or conquest, but simply agreed to purchase and pay $20,000,000 in order to put an end promptly to the war and thus avoid the contingencies that might have to be encountered if the war was not closed at once. And that was the line of appeal resorted to to induce Senators who were opposed to the ratification of the treaty to vote for it. It would end the war with Spain, they said, and give us time and leave us free to dispose of the Philippine question without any danger of foreign complications.

But if there be any title in force did we not have the co-operation of the Filipinos in driving the Spaniards from the islands, and are they to have no consideration? It does not matter whether they were technically "allies" or not, they took the part of allies and there was a mutual understanding between them and our commanders and representatives. They were armed by our representatives, and they acted in concert with them, until we violated the expressed or implied agreement with them and stepped into Spain's shoes in opposition to their protest.

As to "the party in possession," it certainly is not the United States, the Sun to the contrary, for with the 65,000 men doing police duty there and engaged in enforcing "benevolent assimilation" our authority extends only so far from the few stations occupied by our soldiers as their guns will reach, while the Filipinos have possession of all the rest of the archipelago.

WHY HE SUPPORTS BRYAN.

Robert P. Roosevelt, of New York, believes that a President of the United States should be a man with convictions, a mind of his own and not a mere automaton or a thing of wax. Four years ago he opposed Bryan, but this year, after his experience with McKinley, announces that he will support Bryan, and gives, to the New York Journal, the following reasons for it:

"Four years ago I supported Palmer and Buckner.

"I don't believe in a third party this year. It would be a waste of time and energy.

"I cannot vote for McKinley. I must either vote for Bryan or take to the woods, and it does not run in the Roosevelt blood to take to the woods on any issue.

"Bryan is strong, sincere and independent, with strong convictions.

"McKinley is without a mind of his own. He is nothing more than the mouthpiece of the men to whom he owes his office."

Mr. Roosevelt is, we believe, an uncle of Theodore Roosevelt, the Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency, and is one of many men who opposed Bryan four years ago, but are supporting him now, for substantially the same reasons given by Mr. Roosevelt.

Carl Schurz, Bourke Cochran, ex-Governor Boutwell, of Massachusetts; ex-Governor Chamberlain, of South Carolina, now a resident of Massachusetts; ex-Senator Henderson, Republican, of Missouri, and Hoke Smith, of Georgia, are a few of the men who opposed Bryan four years ago, but are supporting him now, because they believe he is honest and sincere, has a mind of his own and can be relied upon to do his duty as he sees it, and will not be as potter's clay in the hands of corrupt or designing men.

And that's what thousands of the honest masses believe, whose sentiments were so aptly expressed by a local German-American politician in Chicago, who answering the objection to Bryan's adherence to the 16 to 1 ratio, said that was one of the best proofs that he is honest and sincere, for a man who so resolutely adhered to a proposition when there was such effort made to get him to abandon or pass it over in silence, must be honest, and such a man could be depended upon to stick to his declarations and principles. The American people admire pluck, and a man who has the courage of his convictions whether they agree with him in everything or not.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— The echoes of Mr. Bryan's speech of acceptance are still ringing through the country, and the music will increase as the campaign advances.—Atlanta Journal, Dem.

—— The 4,000 Boer prisoners captured in the northern part of Cape Colony by Gen. Hunter are being sent to Ceylon. It seems to be the purpose of the British government to scatter the Boers, like the Hebrews, all over the face of the earth and thus destroy their nationality.—Norfolk Landmark, Dem.

—— The spectacle of the Populist United States Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, going to his home under guard of thirteen heavily armed men is significant. Its significance is not so much in the murderous character of the North Carolina Democrats as in Senator Butler desire to give the Democrats a bad name. He would have been safe if he had been guarded only by a pug dog.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— The China-berry tree, as has been proved by many tests, is second to no timber for railway ties, furniture, inside house finishing and moth-proof chests, and is second only to black walnut for durability, beauty under polish and freedom from insects. Its berries make the best of blacking. Meat cured in smoke from its burning limbs is proof against flies and their crawling progency. Its leaves will protect woolen clothes and dried fruit from their small enemies, and now it is announced that they will effectually protect stored corn and other grain from the ravages of weevils. Truly, as has been said of it, it is the most valuable tree in the South. If we could not get them free, its seeds would be in demand at about $5 a pound. — Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. †

— Louisburg Times: On last Tuesday night Mrs. James Southall, who lives about four miles east of Louisburg, met with a horrible accident which resulted in her death the following day. We are told that the accident was due to a lamp explosion. That in an effort to extinguish the lamp by blowing in the chimney it exploded, with the result as above stated.

— Kinston Free Press: Rain is badly needed. The cotton crop in some sections is almost ruined We are told that wells are going dry—something that has not happened before in years in this section. —— Dr. R. H. Lewis received a bolo, or native sword, from his son, Frank C. Lewis, now serving with the 20th infantry, in Manila. It is a short heavy sword apparently made from an old cart tire but looks very dangerous. The handle is of horn with a two foot lanyard attached.

— Lexington Dispatch: Mr. C. F. Grubb, of Boone township, has been doing a successful business in hiving bees this year. From twenty five colonies established in the Spring he has taken over 2,000 pounds of honey. — For a year or more Greensboro has had a dispensary. At the election Thursday the citizens voted on the question of dispensary or no dispensary. The prohibitionists and saloon side voted together and did away with the dispensary by a majority of 600

— Tarboro Southerner: The breaking of the drought in this section was attended with hailstorms, which did considerable damage. Friday about half a mile square hail fell, damaging cotton and tobacco for ex-Sheriff Knight and Ollen Johnson. Another covering a far greater area occurred Saturday afternoon. It began in this county in No. 14, near Sharpsburg, and took an easterly course, going by Lancaster to Falkland into Pitt county. The path of the storm was from a half to a mile wide, and the hail stones in many places were unusually large. Jos Lane had sixteen half-grown turkeys killed by them, and also several chickens. Poultry on other places is also reported to have been killed. When the hail struck tobacco it practically ruined it; cotton also was much damaged.

— Wilkesboro Chronicle: Mr. R. N. Hackett had a narrow call Thursday night. He had been to Mulberry precinct and had remained till after the count was finished which was after midnight. He had come about a mile towards home when five men jumped out of the woods and stopped his horse and buggy. Hacket reached for his pistol and as he did so, one of the men fired at him, the ball passing through the coat sleave and grazing the left arm. Hackett fired and one man hollered. The horse jumped forward knocking one man down, and ran for some distance before he became under control. Hackett shot twice and the would-be assassins shot twice or more. It was a dastardly deed. There is no doubt fusion enemies of Mr. Hackett who where filed on fusion incendiary advice and mean corn, are the guilty ones.

Glass Houses.

If glass building stones become popular, people may yet "live in glass houses." The stones were invented in France and are now being made in Germany. They are hollow, are filled with rarefied air and permit the entrance of daylight, at the same time diffusing the sunlight. They are not transparent, however, and one on the outside cannot see what is going on within. The walls may be readily washed. The experiment has been tried with success in an operating room at the Elizabeth hospital of the Sisters of Mercy in Cassel, Germany.—New York Tribune.

A Mammoth Dredger.

The largest dredger ever built was designed by a Chicago man and handles 7,800 cubic yards per day. Now comes a new type of excavator which almost walks through the earth. The machine consists of a series of projecting blades or cutters which revolve around a cylindrical conduit of sheet iron. Within this conduit revolves a screw conveyer which carries the material to the upper end of the conduit, where it falls to the belt conveyer and is carried away. The machine is operated by three engines.—Philadelphia Press.

Pulleys Are Disappearing.

The economies and convenience of distributing power through a factory in the form of electricity rather than by pulleys and belting are becoming more apparent every day, and in towns like Buffalo, where electric power is supplied on a large scale, it is said the pulley men have ceased to push their wares very vigorously. Still, the old power transmission system's representatives pretend that their business has not yet been hurt appreciably.—New York Tribune.

The young couple always together before marriage rarely keep up this happy intimacy as man and wife. They are not tired of each other, but the young wife finds herself weak and languid, with no inclination for exercise. And thus begins a division of pursuits and interests which often ends in divided lives. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong. It stops the drains which undermine the strength, cures "female weakness," nourishes the nerves and gives vigor to the whole body.

There is neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic in "Favorite Prescription."

"I suffered from female weakness about eight years—tried several doctors, but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. John Green, of Danville, Boyle Co., Ky. "This medicine was recommended to me by other patients. I have taken six bottles, and I feel like another person."

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, August 14.—The cotton market opened steady with near months one to four points lower and far months two to four points higher and ruled very irregular during the forenoon with the general tendency toward weakness under flurries of liquidation for professional and speculators account. Weak English cables and reports that rains had fallen in the Atlantic States were the motive for this selling. There were few buying orders in evidence while the trade in general seemed to be as heavily loaded with new crop cotton as it was short of those options two weeks ago. The weakness in Liverpool was credited by private cables to a scare of holders started by reports that Manchester spinners were soon to adopt a short time schedule and reports from this side to the effect that the crop was doing better than admitted. Promptly at 1 o'clock the weekly government report came to hand and immediately created dismay in the ranks of the bulls, who sold heavily in an effort to disgorge large dealings. While the statement was unquestionably a bullish one it failed to note the favorable conditions expected. On the break Europe and the South sold actively, as did the wire houses. During the rest of the afternoon the market was extremely nervous and displayed feeble recuperative energy. The close was steady at a net loss of sixteen to twenty-one points.

A JAPANESE DINNER.

HOW THE DISTASTEFUL FOOD IS SERVED AND EATEN.

Squatting Before Tables Six Inches High, One Wrestles With Chopsticks and Tiny Bowls, the While Waited Upon by Barefooted Maids.

To an American given to stiff joints and corpulency a Japanese dinner is a tedious experience, especially when he's used to business lunches and the like. But it is worth trial and discomfiture if one is fortunate enough to be the guest of a rich man, for in Japan hospitality is one of the cardinal virtues.

Western customs and usages have found their way into many homes of the wealthy, whose dinners and lunches are the counterpart of those with which we are all familiar. But a real Japanese dinner, including chopsticks, lacquer trays and tiny cups, is a thing never to be forgotten.

Japanese houses are made up of sliding screens instead of our solid partitions and in summer are all leftopen, so that, seated at dinner, one looks out over the gardens, seeing the lights of the city in the distance, and the scent of a thousand flowers blows in with every breath of air.

The guests remove their shoes on entering the house and, except when provided with a pair of cotton overshoes, must spend the evening in stocking feet unless happily the host has an extra pair. The wife of a Japanese gentleman does not preside at his table unless there are ladies in the party, but appears with the tea and sweetmeats, which always precede a dinner, as do our cocktails and sherry, etc. She merely greets the guests and appears again only when the goodbys are said.

Silken cushions are scattered about the floor and the guests are arranged according to rank, for the Japanese are, of course, great sticklers for form and ceremony. Little tables, some six inches high, are placed before each one and barefooted waiting maids in graceful and prettily tinted kimonos bring in lacquer trays with several tiny covered bowls.

Before leaving the trays on the tables they set them on the floor, and, dropping on their knees, make their best bow, touching their foreheads to the floor. Chopsticks take the place of knives and forks; but, unlike our weapons of attack, are made of wood. They are never used twice, unless family heirlooms, when they are of carved ivory of the most exquisite workmanship, as are also the lacquer trays, bowls and cups.

The host sets an example by removing the covers from the tiny bowls, and the guest, doing likewise, finds an assortment of food quite new and generally most distasteful. Mustering up much skill one attempts getting the food on chopsticks from the tables to one's mouth. The first few times most of it falls on the floor or on one's lap. The wretched sticks wabble and cross each other as if focused. When almost desperate, the good host is apt to come to the rescue by suggesting lifting the bowls, and, with the aid of a chopstick, shoveling the food in, as one would potatoes into a barrel.

In each course there are half a dozen dishes, and the host tells what they are. First, suimono, a bean soup; kuchitori, chestnuts boiled and crushed into a mush; kamaboko, fish picked fine and rolled into little balls and baked; sashimi, raw fish cut into thin slices and covered with ice. This is dipped into rich sauce called soy, and is really very good. Little cups of warm sake, the native brandy made of rice, are served with each course. Napkins and bread are unknown quantities.

The second course is a small fish boiled whole. One has a chance here to get in some fine play with the chopsticks—umani, bits of fowl boiled with potatoes or lotus roots, a salad of onions, peas and string beans, with a few leaves of lettuce; sunomono, sea snails served with eggplant mashed, and chaman mushi, a thick soup made of fish and vegetables, with mushrooms for a relish.

The third course is a curry of rice and picked vegetables, and for a fourth and final course you have sobo, a sort of buckwheat vermicelli served with soy and a sweet liquor called mirin; shiruko, rice cakes, seaweed and confectionery of all sorts, which are very sweet and tasteless.

During the dinner each guest rises and proposes the health of the host and one other guest until the whole party is disposed of. This custom is rather hard on the guests, for sake is fiery stuff and goes to one's head more quickly than our own brandy. To make matters worse, after one has drunk the health of all the company it is customary to drink the health of the waitresses, who bow their foreheads to the floor in acknowledgment.

At the close of a dinner the tabako bon, a tray holding a hibachi with live coals in a cone of ashes and a section of bamboo for an ash receiver, is put before each guest, and cigars and cigarettes are passed around. When all is over, one feels very hungry, stiff in the joints and, if the dinner has been a large one, very much in need of a stimulant.—Boston Transcript.

"Setting the River on Fire."

In old English times, when each family was obliged to sift its own flour, it sometimes happened that an energetic man would turn his sieve so rapidly as to cause it to catch fire. The style of sieve used in those days was called a "temse," and it became a customary saying that a lazy man would never set the temse on fire. Now, it happens that the name of the river Thames is pronounced like the name of this old flour sieve, and after many years, when the old fashioned temse was forgotten, it was thought that setting the temse on fire meant setting the river on fire, and that is why today we say that a stupid person will never set the river on fire.—Ladies' Home Journal.

In every family you'll find an old man trying to quit smoking and a young one trying to learn.—Atchison Globe.

Age may not be garrulous, but there is no denying the fact that it tells on both men and women.—Exchange.

A carload of oranges will average 340 boxes, and the boxes contain about 176 oranges each. A carload of lemons will average 288 boxes, with 360 lemons to the box.

HE MADE A STUDY OF MICE.

And Concludes That They Have a Keen Sense of Humor.

Few people understand the mystery of mice. I think I can, without immodesty, claim to understand mice, for I have made them a study for many years. I used to think that nature supplied mice, wherever there seemed to any call for them. For example, if you live in a house where there are no mice and in a rash moment provide yourself with a mouse trap or set up a cat mice will immediately make their appearance. To the superficial observer this looks as if nature, perceiving that you have a mouse trap, proceeds to supply mice for it, or, noticing that you have a cat, sends mice enough to satisfy the animal. But this is not the true explanation. In order to understand mice you must grasp the fact that the mouse is an animal with a keen sense of humor and a love of excitement. With this key in your possession you can readily unlock the mystery of mice.

That the mouse has a sense of humor is conspicuously shown by the way in which he will rattle a newspaper in your bedroom at night. The mouse does not eat newspapers, nor does he put them to any domestic use. He merely makes a noise with them, knowing that of all sounds the midnight rustle of a newspaper is the one which will most successfully banish sleep from your eyes. If a mouse finds an eligible newspaper in your bedroom he will settle himself down to a night of fun and jollity. He will rattle that newspaper till morning, and the only effect of throwing boots at him or of getting up and lighting the gas and searching for him with a poker will be that he will hide himself till you lie down to sleep and then resume his little newspaper game. If this does not show a sense of humor it would be difficult to say what it does show.

Then there is the well known fact that no sooner does a mouse trap or a cat enter a house than it is followed by a troop of mice. Cats and traps draw mice as the pole draws the magnet. The mouse loves the game of teasing the cat by stimulating the latter's hopes of capturing mice. It is considered the height of fun among mice to scuttle across a room in the presence of a cat and to disappear in a hole just as the cat is ready to pounce. Of course, now and then a too reckless mouse pays the penalty of rashness by being caught by the cat, but accidents of this kind are more rare among mice than football accidents among men and in no way render mice shy of the game.—Pearson's.

WHISTLING BUOYS.

Valuable Aids to Navigation and Repairers Keep Them In Tune.

One of the most interesting aids to navigation is the whistling buoys. There are several of them off the cape, and their dull, hoarse groaning may often be heard for miles.

They are clumsy affairs of steel, ranging in length from 30 to 35 feet, with an air tank shaped like a pear about 10 feet high and 9 feet in diameter from which an 18 inch pipe 20 feet long protrudes.

These buoys may be seen at the lighthouse department storehouses on Diamond island, where buoys of all kinds and shape are kept ready to be placed over some rock dangerous to navigation or to replace any which may be damaged or adrift.

This long pipe which runs down into the water is what furnishes the power for the whistle.

When the buoy is in the water, the rolling of the waves up through the pipe and the pressure on the air in the tank forces it out through the whistle, and the well known dismal sound is the result.

Whistle buoys in different ports of the coast are given a different pitch in order that the mariner may, on a thick night, be able to know his locality by the difference in the sound.

It is the duty of the officers to adjust the pitch of these whistles when they get out of tune, and they have become so expert at it that they can detect and remedy the slightest variation from the correct pitch.

The adjustment of these whistles must be made while they are in place, and sometimes the great necessity of the marks on dangerous rocks obliges the men on the buoy boats to make these repairs in very rough weather.

The repairing crew usually includes the mate and one man, who are rowed up to the buoy until they are able to grasp the rings on the side and clamber up over the side to the cage which protects the whistle.

Perhaps the most dangerous duty which falls to the lot of the buoy tenders is that of replacing the heavy buoys during a storm or while a heavy sea is running.

With the steamer rolling her rails under the greatest care must be taken to avoid accident, and many are the stories of narrow escapes related by strong, rugged men who perform this dangerous work.—Augusta (Me.) Journal.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 15.

WAS REQUEST DISREGARDED?

President Kruger, of the Boer Republic, Asked for Sanctuary at the United States Consulate.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LONDON, August 14.—President Kruger at one time made a formal application to the United States to grant him a sanctuary in case the necessity for it arose.

This occurred, according to Secretary of State Reitz, of the Transvaal republic, the day Lord Roberts entered Pretoria. The details of the event have been related to a representative of the Associated Press by Mr. F. W. Unger, who has just returned from the Transvaal and who secured the information from Secretary Reitz and others. After quoting the secretary as saying President Kruger would never take to the mountains, on account of his age, but would retreat down the line, finally escaping to Portuguese territory. Mr. Unger said that the day the British entered Pretoria President Kruger sent for Mr. W. Stanley Hollis, the United States consul at Lorenzo Marques, and Mr. Hollis was taken to Machadodorp in a special car. President Kruger asked him if his government would grant him (President Kruger) an asylum in the Lorenzo Marques consulate until he (Mr. Kruger), made other arrangements for his departure. President Kruger expressed fears concerning his treatment by the Portuguese government and wished to guard against any possible British landing parties. Mr. Hillis asked for time to consult with his government and President Kruger assured him he would receive a week's notice before putting the plan into execution.

In consequence of this visit to the Transvaal and the transmission of President Kruger's request to Washington, Mr. Hollis received instructions from Secretary Hay not to leave Portuguese territory again. He was thus compelled to neglect the interests of the British prisoners at Nooit Gedacht.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—It is said at the State Department that no formal application has ever come from Consul Hollis for sanctuary in the American consulate for President Kruger, and that the instructions sent to the consul to confine his energies to his consular duties was not a result of any discussion of an asylum for the Boer President and the department was not aware that Mr. Hollis had visited the President.

It appears that some intimation on the subject reached the officials here, but it is said to have not been such a formal application as would have been requisite. Had formal application been made, it is stated that it would have been passed upon by the President, but there has been nothing communicated which called for such action.

CONDITION OF COTTON.

Deteriorated Materially in the Carolinas, Georgia and Arkansas—Opening Prematurely.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

Owing to the unusual conditions of heat and dryness and the excessive rains in certain districts, the week as a whole was unfavorable to agricultural interests in the districts east of the Rocky Mountains, and on the Pacific not very favorable.

Over portions of the central belt cotton has improved slightly, although rust and shedding are generally reported and the crop needs rain in portions of Mississippi, while suffering from excessive moisture and lack of cultivation in parts of Louisiana.

In the Carolinas, Georgia, and Arkansas the condition of cotton has deteriorated materially, premature opening being extensively reported from the Carolinas. In Northern Texas cotton has made favorable progress, but elsewhere in that State it needs dry weather and is making too rank growth. Some picking has been done over the southeastern portion of the cotton belt, and while cotton is opening in southwestern Texas, picking will not be general in that State for two or three weeks.

WITHIN SIXTEEN MILES OF PEKIN.

French Report of the Advance of the International Forces on the Imperial City.

NEWS LACKS CONFIRMATION.

Germany Determined That England Shall Not Have a Free Hand in Yangtse Valley—Sending Cruisers to Shanghai.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, August 15, 4 A. M.—The only news which takes the advance upon Pekin further than Hosiwu comes from Paris. The London papers contain nothing to confirm the French report that the allies are within sixteen miles of Pekin, although a Che Foo dispatch is printed saying that they were within twenty seven miles of the goal on Saturday.

Confirming the report of the arrival of the international forces at Hosiwu, the Daily Mail's correspondent adds:

"The Chinese offered little real opposition. The arrival of the allies frustrated a determined attempt to divert the course of the river. The heat is intense, but the health of the troops is good."

A St. Petersburg special says:

"The latest news from General Linevitch, commanding the Russian troops in the province of Pechili, is that the allies, after the capture of Yangtsun, took one day's rest and then on August 7th a vanguard was formed, consisting of one Siberian regiment, one regiment of Bothnia Cossacks, three battalions of Japanese infantry, one Japanese sapper company and an American mounted battery.

"In spite of the condition of the road, this column proceeded by force in the marches 11½ versts toward Pekin, encountering at Nan Tsai Jung, about forty-nine miles from the capital, a Chinese detachment, which fought for an hour and a half. Finally the Chinese threw down their arms and fled in a panic.

"When this news was sent back all the allies started forward in three columns, with Cossacks in front and on the flanks."

A Port Arthur special announces that the women and children have been officially notified to leave that place.

The Chinese minister in London is quoted as saying that he hoped and believed that peace would be established between China and the powers within the next six weeks. Yesterday he transmitted to the British Foreign Office another message from the British minister in Pekin, Sir Claude MacDonald, the contents of which the officials have thus far refused to make public.

Germany Opposes Great Britain.

The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says the German government has ordered two cruisers to Shanghai and that another is on the way, while a fourth is already there.

"The German government," he says, "is evidently determined that England shall not have a free hand in that region."

The Standard, after expressing the opinion that there is increasing ground to hope that the ministers will be rescued by the arrival of the allies at Pekin to-morrow (Thursday) if the initial rate of progress is maintained, goes on to deal with what will follow the rescue, and says it may be taken for granted that the policy attributed to the Washington cabinet represents the absolute minimum of the demands of the combined powers.

BERLIN, August 14.—Considerable surprise is expressed by the German Foreign Office at the information communicated to Washington by General Chaffee that the allies were at Hosiwu last Thursday, inasmuch as other recent dispatches had asserted that the Chinese were strongly entrenched in front of the allies above Yang Tsun.

The Hanover Courier, discussing the campaign, says to-day that Foreign Office circles regard the success of the present movement as next to impossible, and expect that the first task of Count von Waldersee, after his arrival at the front will be to lead the advance upon Pekin.

Lieutenant Colonel Reinhold Wagner, discussing the military problem in the National Zeitung, argues that the roads leading from Pekin to the interior ought to be seized in order to prevent the escape of the rebels, and that then with an army of from 70,000 to 80,000 men, an advance should be made along both banks of the Pei Ho.

The possibility of the clashing of the international interests in China is still generally discussed. The Berliner Post refers to the landing of the British at Shanghai and to Russia's action at Nitbhwan, particularly to the latter as having caused some apprehension among the other powers, especially in Japan.

"It would not be strange," says the Post, "if other powers did likewise, and it would cause a serious complication of the situation if not only Great Britain but others took occasion from Russia's action to adopt steps of far-reaching importance for the future."

BERLIN, August 14.—A semi official dispatch from Tien Tsin, dated August 8, says the Russian Colonel Woyczak has received advices from Pekin announcing that during the night of July 31st the bombardment of the foreign legations was resumed and that the European church yard was desecrated.

Chinese Demoralized.

LONDON, August 14.—A special dispatch from Yangtsun, dated August 7, reports the arrival of supplies there sufficient to last twelve days.

The dispatch adds that reconnoissances show the Chinese are demoralized and fled towards Pekin.

The American signal men are keeping the telegraph wire intact along the line of march in the face of great difficulties.

About 50 per cent. of the wounded are cases pronounced to be serious, by the attending physicians.

Again Attacking the Legations.

LONDON, August 14.—A special dispatch from Shanghai, dated August 13, says numerous reports from Pekin, dated August 6, have arrived here, describing the situation at the Chinese capital. It appears the Chinese are again desperately attacking the legations, which had very few defenders left. It is also alleged that Prince Tuan and a hundred high officials have left Pekin and that the news of the capture of Yangtsun caused a heavy exodus of the residents. Finally, it is said that the execution of Cheng Yin Huan, the Cantonese, who was special ambassador of China to Queen Victoria's jubilee, has created widespread terror, and it is believed to be a fact that Yu Ku, the former viceroy of Chi Li, was killed in battle at Yangtsun.

Forts at Canton Newly Armed.

LONDON, August 14.—Secret inquiries at Canton show all the forts have been newly armed with 12-centimtere disappearing guns and that the garrisons number 18,000 in all, armed with Mausers and Winchesters. The Chinese have also been trying to engage a foreign electrician to lay mines at the entrance to the Canton river.

Dr. Marks, Li Hung Chang's physician, informed the correspondents at Shanghai this morning that Li could not go north on account of the weather and the unsettled state of the country. The doctor is removing his family from Canton because he believes there may be an outbreak there.

The St. Petersburg papers are campaigning against the political activity of Great Britain in the Yangtse valley. The St. Petersburg Gazette has interviewed a member of the United States embassy as to the reasons why the United States assumed a hostile attitude towards China, and the motive of Li Hung Chang's declaration that Minister Conger could be sent safe to Tien Tsin on condition that the United States abandoned the idea of a march on Pekin. The member of the United States embassy is quoted as saying the United States was indignant at thus being bargained with and expressed the belief that the United States would send many troops to China.

Chinese Force Concentrated.

LONDON, August 15.—"The allied troops," says the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times, "having on August 9th occupied Hosiwu, have now moved on toward Mu Chang, without meeting any great opposition. The artillery is being moved satisfactorily, in spite of the bad roads, which the Japanese are engaged in repairing.

The Chinese are now concentrated at Hsing Hoh Sien, where fighting may be expected."

HARASSING THE AMERICANS.

Increased Activity Among the Filipinos in the Visayas Islands—Several Engagements in Luzon.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, August 12.—Reports from the Visayas islands show that there has been increased activity among the insurgents there during the last six weeks. The American losses in the Island of Panay last month were greater than in any month since January last.

General Mojica, in Layaite, and General Luban, in Samar, are harassing the garrisons, shooting into the towns during daylight and ambushing small parties, firing and then retreating upon the larger bodies. The rebels possess an ample supply of ammunition and are organized to a considerable degree.

The Americans have garrisoned three towns on Samar island, two of which shelter a tenth of the original inhabitants who suffer from the continual "sniping" of the rebels from the surrounding hills. The third is without any native inhabitants, the rebel outposts, a mile away, preventing their return to their homes.

When amnesty was proclaimed it practically was without effect, and the expectation that the proclamation would not accomplish much in the unexpired time is daily diminishing.

The Philippine Commission, it is now announced, will make all future civil service appointments.

Several minor engagements occurred last week in Luzon. The rebels used smokeless powder.

MARION BUTLER'S DENIAL.

Says He is for Bryan and the People's Party Nominee for Vice President.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LINCOLN, NEB., August 14.—The Independent, a local Populist paper, telegraphed Chairman Butler of the National Populist Committee, for a denial of the report that he would take the stump for McKinley. The following telegram was received in reply:

"Raleigh, N. C., August 14, 1900.—Report unqualifiedly false. I am for Bryan and the People's party nominee for Vice President. I am in favor of the committee nominating a candidate on August 27th. I am not a Democrat. I am not a Republican. I am a Populist. I was not for Stevenson in 1892 and am not for him now.

(Signed) "MARION BUTLER, Chairman."

FATAL SHOOTING.

Two Negroes Killed at a Turpentine Distillery in Florida.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MARIANNA, FLA., August 14.—At Haskins' turpentine distillery, three miles from here, Walter Rossin and Charlie Bullock, negroes, became involved in a quarrel and the former shot and killed the latter. William Haskins, a young white man, attempted to arrest Rossin. The negro fired at Haskins, putting a ball in each of his arms. Haskins then fired at Rossin and dropped him dead in his tracks.

A MESSAGE FROM MINISTER CONGER

Received at the State Department, But Its Contents Are Not Divulged.

UNACCOUNTABLE RETICENCE.

Given Out That the Dispatch Showed Neither Better Nor Worse Conditions at Pekin—Nothing from Gen. Chaffee—Officials Hopeful.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—At the close of the official day at the State Department the following official announcement was bulletined:

"The Department of State announces that a message from Minister Conger has been received, but of uncertain date and not in reply to the telegram sent him on August 8th. It will not be made public."

This came at the conclusion of a period of intense expectancy and yet one devoid of any actual developments, save in the foregoing meagre announcement.

Minister Conger's message was received in Washington shortly before noon, coming first to the Chinese legation by the usual route through Chinese officials. It was in the American cipher, without date, and signed with the minister's name. It was transmitted to the State Department and conference began between Acting Secretary Adee and Secretary Root. Throughout the afternoon, however, the State Department maintained concerning the subject, declining to admit that the message was in hand. The suspense was cleared up at 4 o'clock by the above announcement. It was stated authoritatively that while the message was of a confidential character and for that reason could not and would not be given out, yet, as a means of allaying possible misinterpretation, it could be said that the dispatch showed neither a better condition, nor a worse condition on the part of the legationers at Pekin. It did not indicate whether Minister Conger has or has not received any message from this government. Nothing was contained in the message which will cause any change in the instructions to General Chaffee. In fact, it was stated in the same authoritative quarter, that the only additional instructions sent to General Chaffee since he left Washington were those of a more specific and explicit nature, which the developments in China and the information received by the War Department, necessitated.

An Unaccountable Reticence

Not a Word From Chaffee.

Throughout the day word was anxiously awaited from General Chaffee as to the development of the military situation near Pekin, but not a word came. The last heard from General Chaffee he was at Hosiwu, and according to all calculations he must now be very near Pekin, unless events have occurred to delay the advance. The officials are taking into account that an advance even up to Pekin leaves much to be accomplished in a military way. It was stated to-day by an official who has lived at Pekin that nothing short of the heaviest artillery could make any impression upon the walls of the imperial city. He said light artillery would be of no avail, and for this reason the advance of a flying column, even up to the walls of the city could effect little if a stubborn resistance was determined upon. The walls are sufficiently high and wide enough on top for two coaches to pass abreast. From an offensive standpoint, the walls afford opportunity for planting guns, while from a defensive standpoint they could not be breached except by the use of very heavy projectiles.

Officials are Hopeful.

Although the situation admits of prospect of an assault upon Pekin, yet government officials were considerably more hopeful to-day that a solution of the Chinese problem would be found without recourse to such heroic measures. The improved feeling is based largely on the belief that Chi a, realizing that her sacred capital is about to be besieged by the armies of the world, will yield everything, and that the legationers will be delivered on the terms of the allies.

The attitude of the United States concerning the landing of British troops at Shanghai has been made known to the foreign governments through their representatives here. This had the effect of practically eliminating the United States from the question.

British Troops at Shanghai.

Neither the French nor the German government is disposed to accept calmly the landing of British troops, and it is understood that strong representations, both from France and Germany, are now being made at London. As summed up by a well informed diplomat, these representations in effect are that for every British marine landed at Shanghai, France and Germany would also land a marine. It is felt moreover, that the issue involved relates not only to Shanghai, but virtually to the control of the entire Yangtse Kiang valley, known as the "Paradise of China."

Foreign governments have manifested a desire also to learn the views of the United States concerning the instructions of Russia to her minister at Pekin, M. de Giers. In response to inquiries here, it has been made known that this government looks upon the course of Russia as substantially the same as that of the United States, and that the powers are therefore acting in substantial unanimity.

GOLD GOING ABROAD.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, August 14.—The largets consignment of gold bullion ever exported from this city in a single day will be shipped by the steamers Teutonic and St. Paul to-morrow. The shipments will be as follows: Baring, Magoun & Co., $7,662,000; Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co., $500,000—total, $8,161,000. Of the Baring, Magoun & Co.'s shipments $2,500,000 was engaged to-day, the balance having been sent to the steamers yesterday. The Teutonic will take out $5,912,000, and the St. Paul $5,750,000. All the gold will go in the form of bars.

To-morrow's shipments by the syndicate bankers, with the $2,700,000 sent a week ago, make up the full amount of the first payment called for by the British Exchequer's circular.

THE FIGHTING AT PEITSANG.

Japanese Did the Work—Americans in Reserve—Chinese Retreated Orderly. Left Few Dead.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SHANGHAI, August 13.—The following dispatch has been received from the Associated Press correspondent with the allied forces, dated Peitsang, August 5th, and forwarded by mail to Che Foo and Shanghai.

"The glory of to-day's fighting belongs to the Japanese. They did all the hardest fighting. The Americans were in reserve and had no casualties.

The Japanese, advancing across the plain, had no shelter and flanked the Chinese from the strong mus walls and trenches extending five miles. The feature of the battle was the magnificent Japanese cavalry charge which resulted in the capture of ten field guns.

The Chinese retreat was orderly and they left but few dead on the field. The correspondent of the Associated Press counted two hundred dead or wounded Japanese. The British loss was two men killed and a few wounded. The British naval brigade guns and two big Russian guns had a duel with the Chinese guns, which resulted in silencing the latter.

The Russians found the plains east of the river flooded and joined the main army, west of it.

Every vehicle in Tien Tsin is impressed for the transport service of the allies, including all wagons and rickshaws drawn by coolies.

ANCIENT CIVILIZATION.

Important Discoveries Made in Egypt by University of Pennsylvania.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LONDON, August 15.—Mail advices to the Daily News from Constantinople, dated August 8th, announce the arrival there of Prof. H. V. Hilprecht, head of the University of Pennsylvania Expedition to Nippur, after having discovered the library of the great Temple, with over 17,000 tablets, dealing with historical and literary matters, not one of them of later date than 2280 B. C.

"The unexplored remains of the library," says the correspondent, "will require five years for excavation. If these parts prove as rich in results as the portion already found, there will be no example in the world's history, not even in Egypt, of so complete a recovery of the records of ancient civilization."

OPERA HOUSE TRAGEDY.

A Famous Singer Drank Poison on the Stage and Died.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, August 15.—While performing Monday evening at the Royal Opera House, Budapest, the well known opera singer, Mme. Nemethy, according to a dispatch from Vienna to the Daily Express, drank a virulent poison instead of the colored water supposed to be used on the stage.

Mme. Nemethy fell before the horrified audience and died an hour later. How poison came to be substituted for the colored water has not yet been ascertained. It is believed, the correspondent asserts, that Mme. Nemethy was quite ignorant of the deadly nature of the drink.

MAYOR MURDERED.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PUNTA GORDA, FLA., August 14.—Acting Mayor Samuel Huffman, of Punta Gorda, had Tom Hartigan, a well known taxidermist, arrested today for violating a city ordinance. Later, Hartigan followed Huffman into a restaurant with a drawn knife and cut him thirteen times with fatal effect. Hartigan then secured a rifle and fled the town.
